

During the month of Autumn, Fernbrook Botanical Art Gallery is pleased to present works by prominent Australian Botanical Artists including Beverly Allen, Deirdre Bean, Annie Hughes, Fiona McGlynn and Elaine Musgrave.

Included in the exhibition are both original works and limited edition prints. All prints are numbered and signed by the artist and accompanied by a certificate of authenticity.

All artists represented have been recognised internationally and have been recipients of the Gold Medal awarded by the Royal Horticultural Society, London, have works in Florilegium collections or large Botanical Art collections such as the Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation and The Shirley Sherwood collection.

Diospyros kaki By Beverly Allen

Phragmipedium 'Schroderae' By Fiona McGlynn
This painting was recently exhibited at The Hunt Institute for Botanical Documentation, Mellon University, Pittsburg, USA

Syzygium jambas By Deirdre Bean

'Maize' by Elaine Musgrave