WINES OF THE WEST WEEKEND

Following last year's highly successful inaugural event we are pleased to announce that the Wines of the West weekend will be held on the 28th and 29th February 2004.

The festival will be showcasing many of the Central West region's leading wineries in the historic surrounds of the refurbished Carrington Hotel, Katoomba, Blue Mountains.

The weekend's activities will comprise of wine tasting throughout the entire weekend with an entry fee of $10.00 per person. 50c from each ticket will be donated to the MS Society. The entry fee will include your personal wine tasting glass and all tastings.

The weekend includes entertainment and The Carrington Hotel has accommodation packages available.

Take advantage of your visit to indulge in some of the many attractions including the world renowned 3 Sisters, art galleries, cafes and restaurants of Katoomba. Or you could take a stroll through the tree canopy on the new boardwalks in the Jamison Valley.
