Hello Colleagues,

Make sure to book your place soon for this one-day Family Therapy conference on the 29th August 2019 conference at the lovely Carrington Hotel, Katoomba.

Early bird rates still apply for the Symposium, Family Work in Rural Communities in Times of Crisis and Change. The rich, diverse and engaging program, including presentations on Open Dialogue, working systemically in challenging regions, working within the education system, CAMHS teams' initiatives, innovative programs from NGOs promoting hope and resilience, and my own brief presentation on tips for families about healthy relationships.

Click this link for all the information, <https://www.aaft.asn.au/events/family-work-in-rural-communities-in-times-of-crisis-and-change/>

Spaces are strictly limited, so make sure your attendance is secured. If you'd also like an evening or two staying at the Carrington Hotel, check out the conference deals, and get in quickly.

See you there,

Warm Regards,

Cathy O'Brien
