ATO Training - Single Touch Payroll

Are you a small business employer with less than 20 employees? Are you reporting by Single Touch Payroll? Small Businesses who employ staff are required to report via Single Touch Payroll by 30 September 2019.

Single Touch Payroll – Introduction

Join us for this overview session to understand how your payroll tax and super reporting obligations, as an employer, will be streamlined, using Single Touch payroll from 1 July 2019.

Find out more about the options and concessions available to small business employers to report payments such as salaries, wages, tax withheld and superannuation each time you pay your workers.

Workshop Presenter Linden Regina

I live and breathe Small Business. I was raised on a farm and I understand the pressures of running a business, trying to meet all your obligations in a timely fashion, manage cash flow, pay the bills and raise a family.

My ATO portfolio includes a broad knowledge across taxation and superannuation.

I am committed to improving the small business client experience and build positive engagement by offering tailored and easily accessible educational information that will assist small businesses to understand and interact with the tax and super systems more effectively.
